FAMILY RIGHTS GROUP TRAINING

LEGAL AND PRACTICE UPDATE, 20TH AND 21ST OCTOBER 2010

CATHY ASHLEY, FAMILY RIGHTS GROUP

Cathy is Chief Executive of Family Rights Group. Cathy sits on the DfES Looked after Children Stakeholder Board and represents Family Rights Group on a number of research advisory groups. Cathy is joint editor of the Family Group Conference toolkit - a practical guide to setting up and running an FGC service (2006) (FRG/DfES) and of the book Family Group Conferences - Where Next? Policies and Practices for the Future (2007) (FRG). Cathy is also a contributor to the publication: Fathers Matter: Research findings on fathers and their involvement with social care services, (2006) (FRG).

She previously worked as an economist for a number of years, before becoming a political adviser in 1993 to the then Shadow Local Government Minister. Cathy went on to work in local government and managed Hammersmith and Fulham's corporate Policy Unit, before joining Family Rights Group.

BRIDGET LINDLEY, FAMILY RIGHTS GROUP

Bridget is a solicitor (currently non practising) and a member of the law society who has 20 years of experience in the field of child care law (in private practice, a Community Law Centre and at Family Rights Group (FRG)). Bridget has developed a particular expertise in the interface between child care law and human rights legislation, particularly in relation to administrative decision-making.

She is currently deputy chief executive of FRG, a practising family mediator and member of the UK College of Family Mediators. She is also the parent's stakeholder representative on the Family Justice Council.
