

The Family Group Conference Toolkit

- a practical guide for setting up and running an FGC service

The toolkit is published jointly with the Department for Education and Skills and the Welsh Assembly Government

This toolkit is for anyone who is interested in family group conferencing. It is a practical guide that aims to assist agencies set up, sustain and develop effective family group conference (FGC) services. It is for:

- * senior managers in local authorities and other agencies interested in involving children and families in decisions about their lives;
- * FGC service staff and managers;
- * social workers, family support workers, teachers and other practitioners who may refer children and families to an FGC Service, or who can inform children and families about an FGC service in their area;
- * social care academics and trainers; and
- * children, young people and families who are interested in, have been invited to or have experienced an FGC.
