

Wider Family Matters

- a guide for relatives and friends caring for children who cannot live with their parents

A Family Rights Group Publication Edited by Clare Roskill
Published January 2007

This is a comprehensive guide for relatives and friends raising children who cannot live with their parents. It has also been designed to be of use to young people and to professionals working with children and families. This guide develops and updates an earlier publication Second Time Around: A Guide for Grandparents Raising their Children.

Order your copy now for only £8 (+15%p&p) by simply filling in the form below and sending it to Family Rights Group or phoning us on 020 7923 2628.

The guide is produced with funding from the Department for Education and Skills
