A FREE one day course on:
Advocating for Mothers involved with Children’s Social Care Services as a result of domestic violence

3rd November 2017, 09.30am - 4pm OR
19th January 2018, 09.30am - 4pm
Venue: London (TBC)
Trainers: Beverley Campbell and Angela Frazer-Wicks/Laura Mason

The law and processes relating to children’s social care are complex and frequently changing. This course will clarify the duties local authorities have to support children and families, and will set out the proper procedures that should be followed when there is a genuine concern for a child’s welfare and/or safety.

By the end of the day participants will:
• Have gained an understanding of the law and processes in relation to family support.
• Have a basic understanding of the law and processes relating to child protection.
• Understand the duties of local authorities to involve families in planning for their children.
• Be able to confidently support and advocate for mothers who are in contact with social care services when domestic violence is the main issue of concern.

Who should attend:
Domestic violence workers.
A FREE one day course on:

Advocating for Mothers involved with Children’s Social Care Services as a result of domestic violence

TRAINER: Beverley Campbell
is an experienced solicitor who has specialised in all areas of family law, including care work throughout her years in private practice. She joined Family Rights Group in 2008 as an Advocate and Advisor who undertakes direct advocacy, provides advice on our national advice line and has developed and delivered training.

BOOKING FORM

Please photocopy this booking form and return to:

Alternatively you may book online:
https://www.frg.org.uk/training-and-events/training/advocacy-training

Limited places. Please book early to avoid disappointment

Please specify course date you would like to attend: 03/11/2017 ☐ 19/01/2018 ☐

Name ........................................................................................................................................................................

Job title ..........................................................................................................................................................................

Organisation ......................................................................................................................................................................

Address ...........................................................................................................................................................................

....................................................................................................................................................... Post Code..........................................................................................................................

Telephone No................................................

Email .................................................................................................

Any special requirements (i.e. dietary / sight / hearing / access)? YES ☐ NO ☐

If yes, please specify assistance required ..............................................................................................................................

If you would like to be included in future mailing lists please tick here ☐

If you are unable to attend this event, would you like to be sent information on similar events in the future? ☐

Cancellation Policy: Let us know in writing as soon a possible if you cannot attend event on which you are booked. Substitutions may be made at anytime.